CHANGES: This bulletin replaces Office of School Operations Bulletin No. N-33 (Rev.), of the same subject, issued on September 7, 2001. The content and format have been updated to reflect changes in the issuing office.

I. PURPOSE The purpose of this policy is to discourage those who might create disturbances from coming onto campus and to provide students, staff, parents, and interested community members visiting campuses with a safer environment.

II. PROCEDURE All schools with fences and gates shall lock all gates at the beginning of classes in the morning and keep them locked until the end of the school day. Only the main entrance to the school shall be open during the school day and it should be monitored at all times.

AUTHORITY: This is a policy of the Chief Operating Officer.

ASSISTANCE: For further information, please contact your Local District Operations Coordinator.
