

FAMILY LITERACY THROUGH PARENT EDUCATION

PROVIDED BY LAUSD

THE DIVISION OF ADULT AND CAREER EDUCATION & BEYOND THE BELL BRANCH

Our Objective

To empower parents with the knowledge and confidence designed to support family literacy, student academic success, and positive family relations. The Division of Adult and Career Education and Beyond The Bell Branch have joined forces to offer the 50 participating High Schools (see list of participating High Schools) a variety of parenting courses and activities under the grant funding of 21st Century Community Learning Centers.

“It’s helpful to talk to other parents about academic and family issues.”

-LAUSD Parent

“It’s always great to feel that we are not alone and that we are not doing such a bad job.”

- LAUSD Parent

What is the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program?

Beyond the Bell through its relationship with the Division of Adult and Career Education offers whole families educational opportunities so that every member is able to improve literacy and life skills that bring about change to ensure that parents and children achieve their goals for success. The activities outlined in this brochure are designed in collaboration with the 21st Century Community Learning Center and After School Education and Safety grant identified high schools that reflect the educational needs of the specified school's community.
